LAS VEGAS (September 12, 2020) – Super Summer Theatre (SST), will kick off a year- long celebration of 45 years presenting affordable, family-friendly entertainment under the stars with a one-hour live-stream broadcast on Sunday, October 18, from 5 to 6 p.m PST.

The virtual benefit celebration will feature songs and memories from SST's first 45 years and songs from the 2021 45th Anniversary Season including a performance by Broadway, TV, and film actress and SST alumna Satomi Hofmann who will perform from her home on the East Coast.

The one-hour show will be emceed by Maxine Jones, formerly of En Vogue, who will be hosting her first event for Super Summer Theatre.

With the current season postponed to 2021, this is an unprecedented opportunity to continue to fund the resources of Super Summer Theatre to provide a valuable service to the Las Vegas community.

Whether in season or waiting for the opportunity for the curtain to rise again, SST is committed to keeping costs down and ticket and educational class prices affordable. Over the last 44 years, over 200,000 youth have been introduced to the magic of the performing arts only because of SST. Their families could not afford the cost of commercial productions.

Tickets to SST Live! are $45 per household and all proceeds will benefit the artistic and educational programs of SST.
